Unto the Barony of Endless Hills do We Duncan and Ilish Rex and Regina send fond greetings.

On this day We would like to thank the Barony. When I first moved to Endless Hills several years ago from the Kingdom of the East, I was very touched by the warm welcome I received. You made me feel so welcome and a part of the Barony that I did not want to move back to the East. I did end up leaving the Barony to marry my Lady wife, but I never forgot the welcome I first received and used my experience as an example. Now I return to my beginning in Aethelmearc as your King and We are honored that the Barony is hosting Kingdom 12th Night. Thank you for your kindness, your warmth and your support!

Vivit to you all!

FROM THE CHRONICLER

12th Night is almost upon us! We eagerly await the arrival of royalty, and feast preparations have begun. It is not too late to get your reservation in - put it in the mail today! It is also not too late to volunteer to help at the event - please email me; I'd love to have you on board. It is an honor for our Barony to have been chosen to host this event, and it can only happen with support from all of our members - you have my thanks in advance!

Having had absolutely no entries for the haiku contest (which may well have been forgotten in the holiday rush), I am extending the deadline to the 15th of this month for publishing in the February issue. See page 7 for the details.

As most of you know, I have been chosen to be the guest editor for the A&S issue of the Æstel in the spring, and I hope to see submissions from our own Barony - we have so much talent here; let's show it to the whole Kingdom! The deadline is March 1 for submissions.

And as always - send me articles, artwork, photos, and anything you'd like to see published in your newsletter.

Yours in Service, Tiercelin

ARTISANS' FORUM AT TWELFTH NIGHT

The Artisans' Forum is an arts and sciences demo/display for SCAdians, by SCAdians; during the Forum, artists display items they have created and discuss materials, tools, and techniques they use. Visitors are invited to stop by between 1 and 3 p.m. to view the work on display and talk with the artists who created them.

Since it is not a competition, there is no "prize," and ALL who participate -- the artists who display their work, as well as the gentles who come to view them -- are winners!

If you are an artist, no matter what your craft or skill level, please consider sharing your talents, enthusiasm, and knowledge of your art form with those in attendance. (For more details, please see "Information for Participating Artisans," below.)

If you are an arts admirer, please come and show your appreciation for our Kingdom's skilled artisans. This is an excellent opportunity for anyone who is curious about, or struggling with, an art form to receive advice from someone who currently practices it. If you like, bring small tokens to give to those whose work you admire!

We hope to see all of the arts practiced in our fair Kingdom represented, from the traditional to the unusual!

INFORMATION FOR PARTICIPATING ARTISANS

To ensure that we have sufficient table space for all who wish to display their work, we request that you contact the Forum Coordinator, Mistress Alicia Langland, at hutchnsn@bucknell.edu, in advance. Please let her know what you plan to display, how much space you will need, and any special needs you might have, such as an electrical outlet nearby, etc.

You may set up between noon and 1 p.m.; the Forum is open to visitors from 1 to 3 p.m. We encourage you to stay with your work (if possible) to answer questions about the materials, tools, and techniques you used. (If you cannot participate for the entire time, do not let that prevent you from joining us for part of it!)

Following are some suggestions of things to bring:

- Works in progress as well as finished projects
- A project to work on during the Forum (This helps folks see techniques and tools in action as well as the end result.)
- Samples or photographs showing an item in various stages of completion
- Brief handout (2 or 3 of your favorite source books, useful websites, recommended sources for supplies, your contact info, etc., ...)
- Tablecovering
- Props" to properly display your items (for example, a mannequin for clothing, a frame for scrolls, etc.)

KINGDOM TWELFTH NIGHT

We invite all good gentles to join in the merriment and cheer at the Æthelmearc Kingdom Twelfth Night celebration on Saturday, January 12, 2008 in the Barony of Endless Hills. The event will be held at Saint Rose Academy, 1300 Old Plank Road, Mayfield, PA, 18407.

We have procured a marvelous hall for feasting, meetings, courts and dancing! Bring your best garb and revel in our sun-filled atrium! The hall opens at 9 am and closes at 9:30 pm. This is a discretely damp site (period containers please), and enclosed flame is allowed. The site is fully handicapped accessible and there is adequate parking for all vehicles. A bounteous lunch is included with the site fee.

The day will be filled with dancing (instruction included!), a period games tournament with prizes – and of course, meetings! There will be children's activities for the younger populace and A&S contests for best late period (post-1500) garb, best accessory and best festive holiday tart (to be crowned the Queen of Tarts!), all with fabulous prizes! At Her Majesty's gracious request, there will also be a contest for best hat, for which She is personally providing the prize.

Their Majesties will be choosing their bardic champion at this event, so come prepared to sing, regale us with tales, and otherwise entertain.

A fabulous Italian Feast will finish the day – followed by much dancing and revelry!

Special highlights will include an artisan's forum and a Pas d'Armes Tournament hosted by the Company of St. Michael.

We have reserved a block of rooms at the Days Inn, 1946 Scranton Carbondale Highway (Route 6), Scranton, PA 18508. The room rate is $66 per night for a room with two double beds. This includes a continental breakfast. The indoor pool is open from 9am to 10 pm and there is a 24 hour game arcade room. The phone number for reservations is 570-383-9979. You must ask for the "SCA Room Block" when reserving to get our rate. You must guarantee with a credit card when you make the reservations. Please reserved by December 20, as they cannot guarantee this block beyond that time.

Please address all questions about the event to the autocrat, Lady Ysabeau Tiercelin at phoebe@echoes.net or by phone to 570-282-3927.

The evening's feast will be cooked by Mistress Euriol of Lothian. Please contact her with any dietary concerns at euriol@ptd.net. The evening feast will be limited to 120 gentles, so reserve quickly!

The site meeting coordinator is Lord Tigernach Mac Cathail, please email all meeting room schedule requests to him at black_company@hotmail.com.

Merchants are welcome – please contact Lady Barbary Rose at artsybarb2000@yahoo.com for more information.

The site fee is $8 for adults and $4 for children 12 and under (babes in arms free). Feast is $7 for adults and $4 for children 12 and under. There is a family site fee cap of $32. Non-members must pay the Non-Member Surcharge of $3 at the door at the event. All members must present proof of membership, either your membership card, or Kingdom newsletter label, or must pay the NMS.

Please send reservations to Lord Tigernach Mac Cathail at 69 Main St. Gouldsboro, PA 18424.

Make checks payable to SCA Inc, Barony of Endless Hills.

Directions:

(Note – this site is very easy to mapquest.)

From the South: Take I-81 north, to exit 187 (toward Mt. Pocono, Milford and Carbondale). Take the left side of the exit, merging onto US 6 East, The Casey Highway. Go 11.6 miles and take exit 6, Meridith Street. Turn left at top of exit. Go to end of street and turn left at traffic light. The entrance to the site is about 1000 yards on your left just after the Lukoil station – you will see the parking lot and large building.

Be careful at the left turn – there is an oncoming road and people do not always obey the stop sign there.

From the North: Take I-81 South toward Scranton. Take exit 202, PA 107 toward Tomkinsville/Fleetville. Turn left onto PA 107/Benton Road. Go 7.4 miles. Turn slight left to take the US 6 business route east ramp. Go 1.2 miles on business route 6. Site will be on your right, just before the Lukoil station.

Be careful turning right, you are turning into oncoming traffic from a side road!

From the Pocono Region: Take 80 to 380 toward Scranton. Merge right onto US 6 East, Casey Highway and follow the directions in the top paragraph.

QUEEN OF TARTS

What must you do to have your recipe crowned the Queen of Tarts at 12th Night?

Arrive onsite with your entry already baked, to compete for points against the other entries at 2 PM in the A&S area, and:

1) It must be in a pie-format, large or small, and it must not have a top crust (a tart is being defined here as a pastry with a bottom crust, but no top crust. Need NOT be cooked in a pie pan.

2) It may be sweet or savory.

3) It must be based upon an historical recipe, a copy of which you provide along with your redaction (modern translation of the recipe in modern cooking terms). Extra copies of the redacted recipe will be appreciated by the populace.

4) It must be accompanied by documentation of some form including your recipe and redaction. No other restrictions are being placed on the documentation, but a separate prize will be awarded for best documentation.

5) You must make your own arrangements regarding heat or cold necessary to properly serve your pastry--no accommodations will be made onsite.

Electricity will be available if you require such for the technology you bring to keep your entry warm or cold, but NO COOKING is to be done onsite. The site will not provide any kitchen facilities or equipment to keep your dish warm or cold.

6) You will have a space approx. 12" by 12" to display your item. Historic creativity in display and appearance will make the judges smile, and that's a good thing.

7) You must provide at least 4 Servings. More (much smaller) servings for public tasting are appreciated but not necessary.

8) Volunteer judges are appreciated, but judges may not enter the competition. Consideration will be given to the historic cooking experience of the judges selected. Please contact Dame Aoife to volunteer to judge.

9) It is requested, but not mandatory, that the owners of the winning entries remain for court to receive their prize.

10) If Peers are selected as judges, they will be excused from judging their own apprentice/protege/student's entries, but may judge other entries. Winners will be selected by an average of the scores:

Taste: 20 pts. Period-ness: 10 pts. Documentation: 10 pts. Appearance including display: 10 pts.

Please note that EVERY entry will receive a token in thanks for entering the competition. In addition, ONE entry will be crowned the Queen of Tarts, and ONE cook will receive the prize for best documentation.

For further information, or to volunteer to judge, please contact myself, Dame Aoife Finn of Ynos Mon, at mtnlion at verizon dot net or phone 570-two five three-6228 between 9 and 11 PM T-TH EST and between 6 PM and 11 PM EST M and F. Email is the preferred method of contact

Cheers! And good luck to the entrants! - Aoife

Sylvan Bard Competition

The Sylvan Bard competition will be taking place at 2 pm. "On behalf of TRM, let it be known that the tryout for Sylvan Bard shall take place at Twelfth Night in accordance with the semi-almost-kind-of traditional format. There will be two rounds, with length dependant on number of performers. The judging criteria is "Whatever and whoever TRM wish to select after the performances are done." The choice of piece is entirely up to the performer, to be based on audience, environment, etc. . . Unless, of course, TRM decide to make some sort of surprise request."

Cave Canem to Perform

This most excellent acting troupe will be performing for the entertainment of all in the afternoon before court at 3:30. They will be performing a medieval play called "The Turnip", about well, a turnip—a very large turnip!

Great Helm to be Passed at Feast

We will be passing the Great Helm for contributions to the Kingdom Travel Fund at Feast, so bring your spare change!

Silent Auction for Map Artwork

The Chronicler's Office is going to have a silent auction at their table for the original artwork for the Æthelmearc Kingdom Map. Bid early, bid often!

January Writing Contest: Humorous SCA Haiku

Your challenge for this month is to write a humorous SCA haiku (3 lines, 5-7-5 syllables) about some aspect of SCA life. I am giving you one of mine as an examples, and a few from Septimus since the previous month's winner can't enter again. The prize this time is a bottle of Lindeman's Framboise (or something similar for minors). Send your entries to carnabyservices@yahoo.com.

Sword swings from on high-
Silver-red colors gleaming.
What do you mean, "light"?

My sword rains down death
nobly scarred from its battles; time for more duct tape.

--Tiercelin

Demo days-bright haze.
Fighters ready, crowd awaits.
Where's the marshal?

Waiting for the feast:
Herald cries: court in session
Maybe eat later.

--Septimus

LINK OF THE MONTH: LOOKING FOR LATIN?

<http://www.yuni.com/library/latin.html>

Looking for a pithy phrase in Latin? This is the site for you! Where else can you find things like Braccae tuae aperiuntur (your fly is open), Catapultam habeo. Nisi pecuniam omnem mihi dabis, ad caput tuum saxum immane mittam (I have a catapult. Give me all your money, or I will fling an enormous rock at your head), or Machina improba! Vel mihi ede potum vel mihi redde nummos meos! (You infernal machine! Give me a beverage or give me my money back!)?

First Time Visitors	104
Returning Visitors	50

This being my last official report as the Local Webminister, I wanted to thank those in and out of the Barony for all assistance in helping me to learn, grow and serve our fantastic group. I do wish the best to the winner of the upcoming elections in completing the task of Webminister. I do offer my input and knowledge gained in assisting you to do your job. Just let me know how I may be of assistance and I will be happy to comply. J

• Canton – There will be unofficial equestrian practices at a new venue to be announced soon. The Canton Yule will be on December 15th in Harford. The zips for Carbondale and Moscow have been requested from Kingdom. The Canton is putting in a bid for Coronation on April 12. The renovations at Old Mill are proceeding.

• Seneschal – Kingdom is working to improve communications for event scheduling, and determining each groups “signature events”. Reports from Fasching were positive.

New Business

• The date chosen for next year’s Melee Madness is May 31. Bids should be presented to the Seneschal by January.

• A motion was made to appoint a committee to research storage solutions for Baronial equipment, including the purchase of a trailer; motion by Maria, second by Juliana.

Elections for Baronial Office:

Tigernach won for Seneschal, Tiercelin for Webminister. All unopposed candidates for the other offices won.

Æthelmearc Spring Coronation

April 11-13, 2008

Camp Lohikan (No St. #) Wallerville Road, Lake Como, PA
Sound the horn and bang the drum! Evil spirits flee our fierce army as it advances, for HRH Khalek and his chosen Princess Branwyn swarm the steppe to claim the throne of Æthelmearc on Saturday, April 12, 2008 at Camp Lohikan in Lake Como, PA. Crowds will mass and sooth-sayers proclaim the glory of the kingdom. Visitors will enjoy the hospitality of the Steppe from all corners of the Mongol Yoke.

The equestrian Moritu of Æthelmearc and riders from throughout the Known World will challenge each other in gallant display of horsemanship, matched by our heavy fighters, fencers and archers in a day to feature those skills. A Mongolian and horse-themed A&S challenge will showcase the gentler arts, with a prize for one entrant who has not won an arts competition before, ably arranged by Mistress Euriol of Lothian (euriol@ptd.net). A wondrous feast will be offered from our steppe kitchen, followed by much merriment and dancing. Lunch is included with the site fee.

Fees:

*Adult site fee $8.50, children 10 and under $5.00, children under 2 free.

*Family cap: site fee only, $25.

*Feast: $8.50/adult, $6/children 10 and under. All seats at feast, incl. children of any age, must be paid reservations.

*Lodging: Unheated dormitory-style cabins, flush toilets, hot showers: $20 per person per night. Heated cabins, $35 per person per night. Bring your own bedding for all cabins. This must be pre-paid with your reservation.

Reservations go to:

Master Brion Gilbert (John Gelatt, 106 Dyberry Drive, Honesdale, PA 18431, 570-253-6228, jrgelatt@hotmail.com). Checks must be payable to: SCA, Inc - Riverouge.

Autocrats (event questions):

Dame Aoife Finn (Lisbeth Herr-Gelatt, 106 Dyberry Drive, Honesdale, PA, 18431, 570-253-6228, mtnlion@verizon.net, email preferred) and Jock MacPherson (Jock Sharp, 15 North Church St., Carbon-dale, PA, 18407, 570-282-3927 evenings till 10, carnabyservices@yahoo.com).

The site opens at 6 PM 04/11/2008 and closes at 10 AM 04/13/2008. Gentles bringing horses must contact the Equine Liaison (Lady Tiercelin at carnabyservices@yahoo.com). She will email you a complete horse site packet or it can be downloaded from the Riverouge website at <http://riverouge.endlesshills.net>. A negative Coggins from within the last 12 months must be shown before unloading any horse from the trailer. This will be enforced by the Equestrian Marshal in Charge, Lady Rhiannon the Banshee (Jennifer Gable, RD 2 Box 501 Dalton PA 18414, magicalldawn@yahoo.com, (570) 877-3678, between 8:30 & 10 pm—she prefers phone calls over emails), who has several interesting and fun challenges planned for the day.

COURT REPORT, FASCHING, NOV 3 AS XLII (2007)

This being the report of Ulrich Drachendonner, Baron of Endless Hills, from the event of Fasching, Nov. 11 XLII (2007) Their Royal Highnesses Khalek Noyan and Bronwyn Noyiqan gave permission for baronial court to go on after their own. Court Herald Lady Rhiannon the Banshee, this report by Lady Barbary Rose.

Baron Robert of Worcester was called forth to report on the “Beat a Baron or a Bayne” tourney that was held earlier in the day to benefit Lord Gregory Hillson and THL Kateryna ty Isaf and their infant daughter Helen. A generous amount of donations was turned over to Lord Gregory, who gave an emotional thank-you to the assembled populace. Lord Gregory also presented to Baron Ulrich the charter for the Thespian Guild.

Lady Ysabeau Tiercelin was called into court. She presented tabards to the Barony for use at all events so that the Endless Hills retainers would look impressive in court.

The Kingdom A&S Minister, Baroness Elisabeth Johanna von der Flossenburg, was summoned to court. She announced that the day’s activities had included A&S Academy, many informational classes taught by instructors from all over the Kingdom. The instructors were introduced and thanked for their contributions.

Lady Dawn de la Lune, event autocrat, was called forth. She announced results from an all-day competition, Rogue-ing the Bells...the winner being Chandra of Endless Hills, who won with four bells. She also gave a special award to someone who was always helpful at events, Jackie of Endless Hills.

Lancelot de Molay was called before the Baron, who awarded the Order of the Thunderbolt to this gentle. The Order was summoned to give the traditional bear-hug to the newest recipient. Scroll forthcoming.

Chandra of Endless Hills was recalled into court. For her constant service and assistance at events, and as an exceptional youth, she received the Order of the Barnacle. Scroll forthcoming.

There being no further business, the Court was closed.

In service always,
Lady Barbary Rose, Herald, Endless Hills
